

ARMA JANUARY MEETING NOTICE

Date: January 20, 2005

Time: 2:30pm-2: 45 Registration
3pm- 5pm Meeting

Place: AEP in Gahanna 700 Morrison Rd.

Price: $ 10 Members, $15 Non Members

Speaker: Larry Rinehart, Deputy Police Chief Gahanna

Subject: Identity Theft

Here is the Bio for Larry Rinehart:

Larry Rinehart served 12 years in the Ohio Army National Guard prior to joining the Gahanna Police Department in 1994. He achieved a Masters Degree in Business Administration (MBA) from Franklin University in Columbus, Ohio in January 2005.

Rinehart is an active and accomplished public speaker and writer. He has served the Gahanna Police Department as a Community Police Officer, Bicycle Officer, SWAT Officer, patrol Sergeant, Operations Sergeant, Operations Lieutenant, and Public Information Officer.

Currently serving as the Deputy Chief of Police for the Gahanna Police Department, Rinehart resides in Gahanna, Ohio with his wife Glenda and son Glenn.

Larry provides public speaking presentations on the topics of relationship violence; personal safety and awareness; workplace violence; identity theft; and leadership and organizational challenges.

Larry Rinehart was the recipient of the 2004 Choices Peacemaker award for his efforts against domestic and relationship violence.

He frequently provides presentations to groups such as: The Columbus Coalition against Family Violence; Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio; Capital University, Bexley, Ohio; Gahanna-Jefferson School District/Gahanna Lincoln High School; Columbus Public Schools/Linden McKinley High School; and many local business groups and civic organizations.

Please contact Andi Snyder at 614-628-8450 or asnyder@op-f.org to register for the meeting.

Thank you,

The Greater Columbus ARMA Chapter Board

